

Informal Working Group Meeting Sunday, November 23, 2008 at the Juridicum in Vienna, Austria

The UN Studies Association (UNSA) cordially invites you to participate in our informal meeting to discuss current and future activities of this working group.

Topic: Working Towards UN Studies

The meeting is part of the UNSA Dialogue Series, monthly online conferences about the different views and perspectives on the UN. This way, we wish to explore innovative views, methods, approaches, (teaching) tools for this interdisciplinary field of studies.

Meeting Time and Venue

The meeting will take place from 10:30am until 1:30pm at the Juridicum / Law School Building, Hohenstaufengasse, Room SEM 6. (Please meet us at 10:20am at the entrance of the Law School, because we will be escorted to the room.)

Tentative Agenda

10:30am – 10:45am: Welcome and introduction (Henrike Paepcke, UNSA).

10:45am – 11:45am: Joint Discussion.

- What defines UN Studies, and why do we need such a field of studies?
- How to expand UN Studies-related activities (regionally, topically)?
- How can we best incorporate the outcome of the Regional Colloquium on Teaching the UN? How can we better raise awareness and work more closely with ACUNS and other partners?

Noon – 12:30pm: Report on the planned Journal of International Organization Studies (Kirsten Haack, UNSA).

12:30pm – 1:15pm: Outlook on and discussion of our future work program, including the planned enhancement of our wiki portal / online presence.

1:15pm – 1:30pm: brief UNSA business meeting (slight change of our by-laws).
